

Sharron Crowley

Sharron is the owner and founder of Aquaventures Swim Centre in Vancouver, Canada. Aquaventures was founded in 1984, and today teaches over 2000 students per week.

She is a member of the Public Relations Committee and was previously a Board Member of the US Swim School Association.

Sharron has been a featured speaker at aquatic conferences in Australia, Japan, Mexico, USA and Canada. She was the conference organizer of the Internationally acclaimed World Aquatic Babies Conference in 2009. She is the recipient of the 2009 Guiding Light Award from the US Swim School Association.

Sharron is known as an industry innovator and for her passionate approach to creative and successful swim school operations.